"Easy-to-use large diaphragm condenser microphone with cardioid polar pattern at an attractive price. The ECMS-70 from IMG STAGELINE provides an excellent sound ... a full-bodied, relaxing sound with subtle treble boost, sufficient detail and almost non-existent background noise. It features a low weight and is of neat workmanship. ... all in all, a top microphone for the intended target group. Who is it for? It is suitable for people who want more when they start with home recording of vocals and co. and for advanced users up to semi-professionals."
